Investigator Trainee Qualifications

Education and Experience
- Knowledge, skill and ability equivalent to the completion of high school and 60 semester hours of college credit, preferably with course work in law enforcement, criminal justice, law, government or another related field.
- Equivalent training or related experience as a law enforcement officer or in the military police may be substituted for college credit on a year-for-year basis.

Requirements
- Valid Illinois driver’s license.
- Physical condition sufficient to pass and maintain a comprehensive physical examination.
- No criminal background.

Beginning Salary
- $26,388 (effective July 1, 2005)

---

Investigator Qualifications

Education and Experience
- Knowledge, skill and ability equivalent to the completion of high school and 60 semester hours of college credit, preferably with course work in law enforcement, criminal justice, law, government or another related field, and one of the following:
  - Completion of the Investigator Trainee Program.
  - Completion of the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board Basic Training Program.
  - Waiver from the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board for Basic Training.
- Experience as a professional in municipal, county or state law enforcement may be substituted for college credit on a year-for-year basis.

Requirements
- Valid Illinois driver’s license.
- Physical condition sufficient to pass and maintain a comprehensive physical examination.
- No criminal background.

Beginning Salary
- Pursuant to the department contract:
  - $35,916 (effective July 1, 2005)
Investigator Trainee Qualifications

Education and Experience
- Knowledge, skill and ability equivalent to the completion of high school and 60 semester hours of college credit, preferably with course work in law enforcement, criminal justice, law, government or another related field.
- Equivalent training or related experience as a law enforcement officer or in the military police may be substituted for college credit on a year-for-year basis.

Requirements
- Valid Illinois driver’s license.
- Physical condition sufficient to pass and maintain a comprehensive physical examination.
- No criminal background.

Beginning Salary
- $26,388 (effective July 1, 2005)

Investigator Qualifications

Education and Experience
- Knowledge, skill and ability equivalent to the completion of high school and 60 semester hours of college credit, preferably with course work in law enforcement, criminal justice, law, government or another related field, and one of the following:
  - Completion of the Investigator Trainee Program.
  - Completion of the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board Basic Training Program.
  - Waiver from the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board for Basic Training.
- Experience as a professional in municipal, county or state law enforcement may be substituted for college credit on a year-for-year basis.

Requirements
- Valid Illinois driver’s license.
- Physical condition sufficient to pass and maintain a comprehensive physical examination.
- No criminal background.

Beginning Salary
- Pursuant to the department contract:
  - $35,916 (effective July 1, 2005)