GOVERNOR BLAGOJEVICH PROPOSES FY04 BUDGET

On April 9, Gov. Rod R. Blagojevich presented a $2.83 billion budget for the Capital Development Board (CDB) that represents a decrease in capital projects and agency operation costs.

The governor’s spending plan recommends a $2.81 billion for capital projects in fiscal year 2004 in both new projects and reappropriations. The agency would receive $13.7 million in operating funds under the plan. That is down $665,300 in program and administrative costs from the current fiscal year.

The budget sets aside $695 million for capital projects, including $500 million for the School Construction Program – the same amount as the current fiscal year—to complete the state’s commitment to the five-year program.

The new capital program for state facilities and institutions of higher education through the Build Illinois Bond Fund and the Capital Development Fund is budgeted at $195.2 million in FY04. The program focuses on the governor’s core priorities and reflects an emphasis on maintaining the state’s existing properties, rather than construction of new facilities.

In higher education, there is $107 million appropriated, including $30 million for capital repair and maintenance at public university and community college campuses. Life-safety projects at Chicago State University, Eastern Illinois University and Illinois State University are included, as is $50 million for replacement of obsolete facilities across the state through the Illinois Community College Board.

Also on the FY04 list are about $60 million in maintenance and repair projects for the Department of Corrections and Department of Human Services.

NEW LEADERSHIP AT CDB

Long-time Capital Development Board member Dennis Gannon has been named chairman of the board by Governor Rod R. Blagojevich. The appointment was effective April 4, 2003. He replaces Ray Mota, who remains on the Board.

Gannon is president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, which represents over 300 union locals in Cook County. He had served as CFL secretary-treasurer since 1996. He also served as business agent for Local 150 Operating Engineers in Chicago and worked for the City of Chicago’s Bureau of Equipment. First appointed to the Capital Development Board by Governor Jim Edgar in February 1993, he has been reappointed twice. His current term expires January 2005.

The Board has also taken action appointing new acting leadership for the agency’s day-to-day operations. Gus Behnke is now serving as acting CDB executive director, replacing Dan Egler, who retired, and Fred Hahn has assumed the duties of acting deputy director. Both men will serve until permanent executive staff is named later this year.

Behnke has served as administrator of CDB’s Office of Fiscal Management since 1984. In that capacity, he is responsible for all administrative budget activities and all financial activity relative to projects. Before that, he served as the supervisor of accounting. He began his career at CDB in January of 1979 as a financial analyst.

Fred Hahn has served as chief legal counsel for last nine years, and will continue in that capacity while also serving as deputy director. Hahn began his affiliation with CDB’s legal staff in 1988. His primary responsibilities include overseeing the delivery of legal services to the Board, assisting in the establishment of policies and reviewing and proposing legislation.

Gannon, Behnke and Hahn will provide a strong leadership team for the Capital Development Board as it pursues its mission of providing quality construction management services for the State of Illinois.

NEWSLETTER TO BE PUBLISHED ONLY ONLINE AFTER JULY ISSUE

To save production and postage costs, this publication will only be available electronically, via the Internet, starting with the August 2003 issue. The last printed copy of the newsletter will mailed at the end of June (posted to the website on June 20). The move is being made as part of the agency’s effort to reduce administrative costs in light of budget cuts.

POSTING OF THIS PUBLICATION ON OUR WEBSITE IS THE OFFICIAL ADVERTISEMENT OF BIDS

As specified in Illinois’ Procurement Code, bids must be posted on our website for 14 days prior to the bid opening. This publication, the Bid Information Newsletter, is CDB’s official procurement bulletin. It is posted to our website, www.cdb.state.il.us, on the 20th of each month. The 14 days begins with that posting. A link to Rebid Notices can be found on our homepage under the “Procurement Opportunity Information” heading. Rebids notices are not included in the hard copy version of the Bid Information Newsletter that is mailed to prequalified firms.
